

Preliminary Theological Certificate 2020

Overview of PTC study

All students are given access to the Online Learning Environment (OLE) which contains the online PTC course materials, including online PTC notes and quizzes and feedback.

Students can Enrol and/or Subscribe to study. The differences between Enrolment and Subscription study are shown below. Either or both options can be chosen.

PTC Enrolment	PTC Subscription
6 month enrolment in 1 PTC unit	One year subscription to all online PTC units.
Full online access to enrolled unit, starting from the date you choose. Online exam can be done anytime within the 6 month enrolment period. Exam results with feedback (for online units)	Online non-enrolled (reading) access to all PTC units. No exams. No formal recognition of PTC study. Does not lead to PTC award.

Printed PTC notes option

If you prefer a printed copy of the PTC notes, these are available for purchase.

2020 Paper exam option

An online exam is included in every enrolment, however you are able to purchase a Paper exam if you prefer. There are two Paper exam windows options available during every 6 month enrolment.

The 2019 Paper exam windows are: 7 – 13 March      20 – 26 June      12 – 18 September      21 – 27 November

2020 PTC Lecture Series option

Each year, four PTC units are taught as PTC lecture series at Moore College. This provides an opportunity for local students to learn from Moore College faculty. The lecture contents overlap and extend the PTC notes for the unit being taught but the students are examined on the PTC notes in the usual ways.

The following units are being offered as lecture series of 6 weeks on Tuesday evenings (7-9pm), in 2020...

Series 1	18 Feb – 24 March	Ministry
Series 2	28 Apr – 2 June	Old Testament 2
Series 3	14 July – 25 Aug (not 11/8)	John
Series 4	15 Sept – 27 Oct (not 6/10)	Early Church History
